

What are GitHub users up to?

- ❑ On a single day 50,000 unique users work on 60,000 unique repositories triggering a total of 160,000 GitHub events.
- ❑ OrgUsers trigger the highest number of Comment events (IssueComment, PullRequestReviewComment) whereas Individual users trigger the highest number of Push, Create & Watch events.

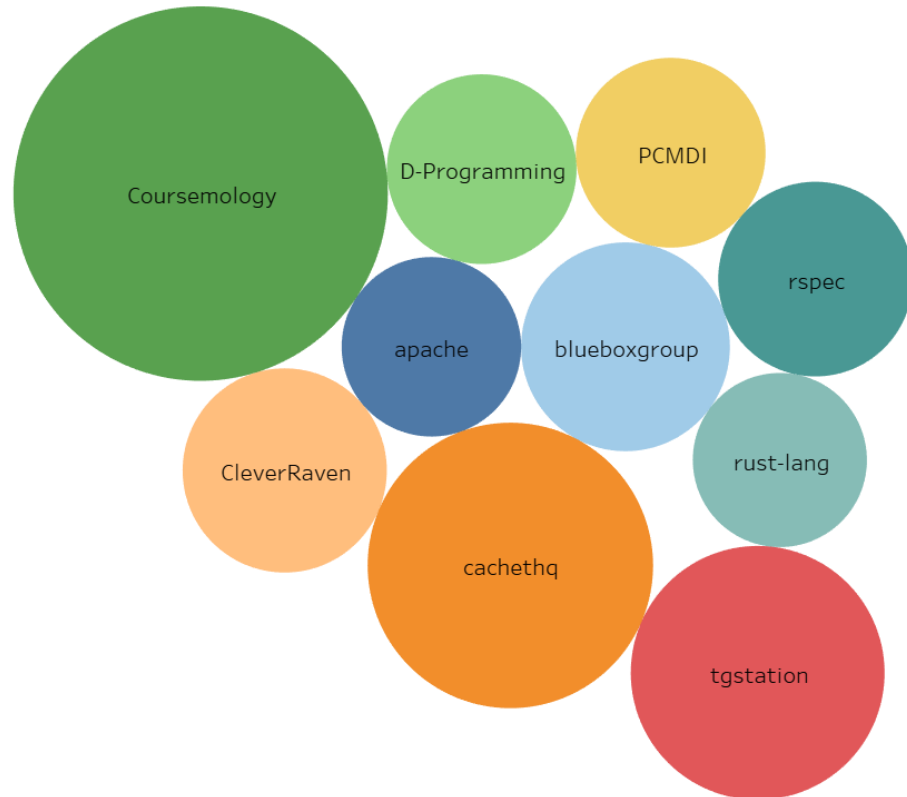

Note: The Data analysis was done on 12 hour data and the summary metrics are extrapolated to a 24 hour day, as day is best suited to slice metrics over time.

What are the active users doing on GitHub?

- ❑ Top 100 highly active Individual users trigger staggering number of Push Events than all other events.
- ❑ Feature enhancements to PushWorkflow has the potential to contribute to new customer acquisition.

Who is most popular on GitHub?

- ❑ Top 500 Repos with highest ForkCount and WatchersCount are the popular Repos.
- ❑ The top 10 organizations owning most of Top 500 Repos present a potential partnership opportunity for GitHub.